INSTRUCTIONS/RULES

Ride-Along Observers must abide by the following instructions and rules:

1. Observers shall report to the appropriate shift commander at the designated time.
2. Observer shall be neat and clean in appearance and attire. Decisions regarding questionable attire or appearance shall be made by the Shift Commander or Assistant Chief of Police.
3. Observers shall not be armed unless otherwise authorized by their position as a current law enforcement/detention officer/deputy.
4. Observers have no law enforcement authority and are under direct authority of the Officer to whom they are assigned.
5. Observers shall not interfere with any officer performing his/her duty and shall not:
 - A. Become involved in any investigation.
 - B. Handle evidence.
 - C. Discuss any case with victim(s), witnesses and/or suspect(s), or
 - D. Handle WPD equipment without authorization from the officer unless exigent circumstances dictate to save a life or prevent serious bodily injury.
6. Observers shall abide by their host officer's decision as to whether or not they will be allowed to exit the vehicle and observe particular calls for service.
7. Observers, host officers, a supervisor, and/or Shift Commander may terminate the Ride-Along at any time it is deemed necessary to benefit the Observer and/or Police Department.
8. Observers may be called to court as a witness as a result of participating in the program.
