PRESS RELEASE

On Friday March 20th 2009 at approximately 4:15 pm, fugitive Allen Mack was apprehended without incident by members of the US Marshall's Office, The Levy County Sheriff's Office task force, the Williston Police Department and the Probation Department.

From information received earlier in the day, Mack was believed to be staying with a co worker identified as Dawn Nowak. Nowak, who is presently on probation was residing at a residence located in the Highlands area, the address was later found to be that of James Race of 450 SE 144th Avenue, Williston Florida.

Mack has been wanted on Felony charges of Kidnapping Felony Battery, and Domestic Battery by strangulation, since March 4th of 2009.

This is a case of different Agencies working together to help located and arrest fugitives like Mack and get them off the streets.
